FLOOR DEBATE

April 5, 2004 LB 391, 1065

an individual becomes an adult for contracting purposes, to make sure that we are giving them the opportunity to find that affordable housing or to be in a situation where they can provide for themselves. It's interesting for me to talk to some of my colleagues about this issue. Now, one in particular who didn't speak today but I've talked with them and others about how their personal situations have come into this, not their own family but people they know, where they couldn't contract for things, they couldn't get loans, they couldn't do things that that individual had no other opportunity to gain. So this discussion will continue on. I appreciate the discussion this morning. I would encourage your advancement of LB 391. I'd like to thank again Senator Chambers, Senator Beutler, Senator Brashear and others who participated in this discussion. I think most importantly, I need to thank the legal counsel and my legislative staff for their work on the underlying bill, knowing that their work will be the foundation that we should build on in the future. I would encourage your advancement of LB 391. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Erdman. You've heard the closing on the advancement of LB 391. All in favor of the motion to advance to E & R Initial vote aye, those opposed nay. The question before the body is advancement of LB 391 to E & R Initial. Have you all voted on the question who care to? Record please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 38 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of LB 391.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The motion was successful. LB 391 advances. We will pass over LB 391A. We will now go on, General File, 2004 Speaker major priority bills...proposals, rather. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 1065 was a bill originally introduced by Senator Baker. (Read title.) Bill was introduced on January 14 of this year, referred to the Revenue Committee for public hearing, advanced to General File. I do have committee amendments, Mr. President.
